58% of centers currently have at least one government grant, totaling more than $122.5 million across over 700 grants.

Limited staff time to devote to grant writing or applications - 78%
Limited staff time to devote to grant reporting requirements - 54%
Insufficient knowledge of or experience with government grant process - 46%
Too much competition for funding - 34%
Think center budget is too small to qualify - 22%
Think government funders are not open to funding LGBTQ programs - 15%

Source: 22% Federal Government, 41% State Government, 37% Local Government

Purpose:
- HIV & STI services - 18%
- LGBTQ youth - 14%
- Housing and homelessness - 12%
- Mental health services - 10%
- Substance use and recovery services, including tobacco cessation - 8%
- Other health services, including COVID-related - 7%
- Multiple purpose - 7%
- Domestic violence - 4%
- All other, including LGBTQ older adults, arts and humanities, food insecurity, and more - 19%