

Mail Ballot Receipt Deadline

No updates required since April 2, 2025

Background

Most states require voters returning absentee or mail ballots to ensure their ballots are received by the appropriate authority by Election Day. A number of states allow ballots to be received a certain number of days after Election Day if the ballot envelope is postmarked on or before Election Day. Finally, some states require absentee ballots to be received prior to Election Day.

Scoring

- Mail ballot receipt deadline on Election Day, 1/2 point
- Mail ballot receipt deadline before Election Day, 1/2 point
- Mail ballot receipt deadline before Election Day, 0 points
