Voting Rights for Formerly Incarcerated People

No updates required since October 3, 2023

Background
Every state has laws outlining who is eligible to vote, and almost all states restrict voting for those who are currently incarcerated for a felony offense—though a few states allow citizens to vote while incarcerated. States differ on when and how formerly incarcerated people can have their voting rights restored.

Scoring
- Voting rights are never lost or automatically restored upon release from incarceration, 1 point
- Rights lost until completion of sentence, including probation and parole, then automatically restored, ½ point
- Additional action is required post-sentence for restoration of rights, 0 points
